Other team accomplishments:

In its first ever season, Seneca competed with a JV schedule and had a 9-1 record, with its only defeat to Camden Catholic. The wrestlers did compete in the District 27 Tournament at the end of the year, which was the first varsity competition in history.

During its first ever varsity season, Seneca qualified for the South Jersey Group I playoffs. Seneca defeated Maple Shade in the quarterfinals before falling to Audubon in the semifinals. Seneca began the year by placing fourth in the Haddonfield Invitational, placing seven wrestlers in the top three, with one wrestler taking first and being named “outstanding wrestler” (Drew Winegar, 130). Seneca went on to place second in the Olympic Conference National Division to Camden Catholic. They also sent four wrestlers to the region 7 tournament in their first season of varsity action, and finished the season ranked 20th in South Jersey in the Courier Post Final Poll.

During its second ever varsity season, Seneca qualified for the playoffs for the second consecutive year, this time qualifying in Group III. Seneca (the #6 seed) defeated Delsea (the #3 seed) in the quarterfinals before falling to Central Regional in the semifinals. Seneca began the year by placing second in the Haddonfield Invitational, with four champions. Seneca went on to finish in third place in the Olympic Conference National Division. They finished fourth in District 27 with two champions, the first in school history (Bobby Conrad at 130 and Zach Schewe at 275). They also had one second place finisher and three third place finishers for a total of five Region 7 qualifiers. Seneca finished ranked 15th in South Jersey in the Courier Post Final Poll.

During the third season of varsity competition, Seneca started out the season by winning the team title at the Haddonfield Invitational with six individual champions. Seneca then managed to defeat all of its' sister schools (Lenape, Shawnee, and Cherokee) for the second consecutive year. They finished 2nd in the Olympic Conference National Division. Seneca again qualified for the South Jersey Group III tournament (for the third straight year). They defeated #6-seeded Triton in the quarterfinals and then #2-seeded Toms River South in the semifinals, qualifying for the South Jersey Group III Championship, where they lost to eventual state champion Kingsway High School. Seneca also won their first ever District 27 Championship, placing seven wrestlers into the finals and qualifying ten wrestlers for the Region 7 Tournament. In regions, Seneca had its' first medalists in history, placing Eric Levenseller 4th at 152, Bobby Conrad 3rd at 135, Bobby Carroll 3rd at 160, and Zach Schewe 3rd at 285. The three third place finishers became the first to qualify for the NJSIAA state individual tournament in Seneca history. Bobby Carroll went 2-2 in state competition, putting him in the top 12 in the state. Seneca finished the season ranked #8 in South Jersey in the Final Courier Post Poll.

During the fourth season of varsity competition, Seneca started out by finishing fourth at the Haddonfield Tournament and had two champions. Seneca defeated two of its' three sister schools to raise its' record against Lenape District schools to 10-2. They missed qualifying for the Group III tournament for the first year, but placed fourth in the District 27 Championship. Two individuals won District 27 Championships (Grant Wood – 140 and Jake Czepiel – 171), and three more placed and earned a place in the Region 7 Tournament (Dave Magazzo – 2nd at 135, Nick Palumbo – 3rd at 145, and Ryan Deveney – 3rd at 189). In the Region 7 Tournament, Seneca had its' first ever finalist in Jake Czepiel at 171. Czepiel finished 2nd to earn a trip to the NJSIAA state individual tournament. Three wrestlers earned first team all conference honors (Dave Magazzo-130, Jake Czepiel-171, and Ryan Deveney-189).

In its' fifth varsity season, Seneca finished second in the Haddonfield Tournament with four champions. They finished 2nd in the Olympic Conference National Division. Seneca again qualified for the South Jersey Group III tournament (for the fourth time in five years). They upset Timber Creek in the quarterfinals before losing to Toms River South in the semifinals. Seneca finished 3rd in District 27, with one champion (Declan Deveney - 152), four second-place finishers, and two third-place finishers for a total of seven region qualifiers. Junior Nigel Gray finished in the top 6 in the region at 285 lbs. Seneca had several individuals earn first team all conference honors, including Alex Sadowski (135), Justin Peoples (140), Nick Palumbo (160), and Nigel Gray (285).

In its' sixth varsity season, Seneca finished with a record of 17-7, and reached a milestone with the program's 100th victory on 1/30/10 against Oakcrest (37-26). Seneca narrowly missed qualifying for the playoffs. They finished 2nd in the Olympic Conference National Division.

They finished 6th in the District 27 Tournament, with one champion (Nick Palumbo – 160), and three second-place finishers. Junior Declan Deveney (152) and Senior Nigel Gray (285) both finished 4th in Region 7, and Senior Nick Palumbo (160) finished in the top 6.

In its' seventh season of varsity, Seneca finished with a record of 17-8, and again narrowly missed a playoff berth. They finished in 3rd place in the Olympic Conference National Division, and had one first team all-conference selection (Declan Deveney – 171) as well as 5 second-team all-conference selections. They finished 3rd as a team in the District 27 Tournament, crowning one champion (Brandyn Bush – 145) and moving on five other district placewinners to the Region 7 Tournament. Senior Declan Deveney (171) also placed third in the Region 7 Tournament, qualifying him for the NJSIAA Individual State Tournament.

In its' eight season, Seneca finished with a record of 19-5. They finished 2nd in the Nottingham Tournament as a team with one champion and three other placewinners. They finished 3rd in the Olympic Conference National Division, and had two first team all-conference selections (Kyle O'Neill – 132 and Nick Moore – 170) and six second-team selections. Seneca once again qualified for the South Jersey Group III Playoffs, and finished in 3rd place as a team in the District 27 Tournament. Six individuals qualified for the Region 7 Tournament (Kyle O'Neill – 132, Jordan Peoples – 138, Brandyn Bush – 145, Nick Moore – 170, Oliver Palumbo – 182, and Steve Saiia – 195). Three of those individuals placed in the Region 7 Tournament (Kyle O'Neill – 4th at 132, Jordan Peoples – 2nd at 138, and Nick Moore – 2nd at 170). Peoples and Moore competed in the NJSIAA Individual State Tournament.

In its' ninth varsity season, Seneca finished with an 8-15 record in dual meets. They finished seventh in the Nottingham Tournament as a team with one champion and two third place finishers. They finished in fifth place in the Olympic Conference National Division, and had six individuals earn second team all-conference. Seneca finished fourth as a team in the District 27 Tournament with five placewinners (Ricky Robbins – 2nd at 160, Steve Saiia – 2nd at 220, Tim Will – 2nd at 285, Brandyn Bush – 3rd at 138, and Quinn Ruble – 3rd at 170). One individual placed in the Region 7 Tournament (Brandyn Bush – 2nd at 138) and qualified for the NJSIAA Individual State Tournament.

In its' tenth varsity season, Seneca struggled with a 6-21 varsity record. They finished 9th in the Nottingham Tournament. They finished in fifth place in the Olympic Conference National Division with one first team all-conference selection (Steve Saiia – 220) and two second team selections. Seneca went on to finish 7th as a team in the District 27 Tournament with three placewinners (Quinn Ruble – 2nd at 182, Steve Saiia – 2nd at 220, and Roosevelt Jordan – 3rd at 132).
